
Fully packed loop configurations: polynomiality and nested arches

Florian Aigner*¹

¹Fakultät für Mathematik [Wien] – Universität Wien, Oskar-Morgenstern-Platz 1, 1090 Vienna, Austria, Austria

Abstract

This extended abstract proves that the number of fully packed loop configurations whose link pattern consists of two noncrossing matchings separated by m nested arches is a polynomial in m . This was conjectured by Zuber (2004) and for large values of m proved by Caselli et al. (2004)

*Speaker